Miss L. C. Boudreau Entertains Ladies of St. Mary's Choir—Attended Surprise Party—Personals and Notes

The ladies of St. Mary's choir were entertained by Miss L. C. Boudreau at her home on Monday evening. The program was given by Miss Mildred Whipple of Westerly and Miss Beatrice Greene of this city. The playing of these young ladies has been heard here before on several occasions. The program was given with a finish and delicacy of touch that would do credit and showed the appreciation of the bearers. Miss Boudreau was assisted by Miss Katherine Donovan and Miss Sadie Driscoll.

John Dennis Delivered Speech.
John Dennis and David Shahan attended a surprise party given by Miss Vera Gadsby in Yonkers Monday evening. Miss Gadsby was presented with a ring. Mr. Dennis made the presentation speech.

Caught Large String of Fish.
Andrew Boyd and Allan Brown were on a fishing trip at Preston City Monday evening and returned with a large string of bullheads and pickerel.

Personals.
Joseph Bellefleur spent Memorial day at Pleasant Beach.

Felix McMahon and Hugh Coughlin are spending a few days with friends in New York.

John Brennan of Albany, N. Y., is visiting relatives on Prospect street for a few days.

WEDDING.
Holcomb-Seavey.
The home of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Coleman was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening, when Miss Viola Seavey, daughter of William Holcomb of Bridgeport, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank H. Merrill of New York.

The bride was attended by Miss Nina Seavey, sister of the bride, and William A. Sears.

The bride was attired in a gown of white silk poplin with net trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid wore pink dress with net trimmings and carried pink roses. The bride's going-away gown was of blue-taffeta with hat to match.

After the ceremony a buffet-lunch was served.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, including cut glass, silver, linen, china, and clocks. She has been a member of the C. L. C. class of Trinity M. E. church, of which Mrs. Coleman is teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill left during the evening for a trip to New York, after which they will reside at 170 Williams street, Bridgeport.

WALKER PROVES TO BE SPEED KING

Wins Big Events in Motorcycle Races Memorial Day—C. V. Pendleton Captures Side Car Event—Chappell's Tire Came Off, Throwing Him, But He Was Not Injured.

Gene Walker of Springfield captured the leading events in the motorcycle races held before a fairly good sized crowd at the fair grounds Memorial day afternoon under the auspices of the Connecticut Amusement association.

The speed demon from the Bay State had everything his way in all the events except the five mile race, and this event was replete with thrill after thrill. Chappell of Lebanon rounded the curves at terrific pace, pushing the Massachusetts rider to his utmost. Several times in rounding curves the Lebanon rider went far up on the further side of the track, causing the Connecticut rider to lose his balance. On the ninth lap of the race Chappell was leading by a few feet when his tire blew off, throwing him in a heap on the turn just south of the judges' stand. The plucky rider picked himself up and walked away.

Walker won the first event of the afternoon, the five mile race, in 30.50 sec. In with Wild Bill Burdick of this city a class second and J. Palazzo third.

The thriller of the afternoon, the ten mile race, was nip and tuck from the start, but ended in a walk-away for Walker. On the first lap Walker led with Burdick second and Palazzo third. Chappell on the second lap shot ahead of Burdick and gradually crept up on Walker until on the third mile he was just up with the Springfield rider. Neck and neck they came down the stretch in front of the stands, both working their machines for all they were worth.

At the conclusion of the race Gene Walker tried to lower the track record, but failed to do so as the light with Burdick failing to make the track heavy.

The judges were M. B. Ring and Albert J. Bailey, announcer, William W. Seckwitz, starter, C. V. Pendleton, clerk of course, Andrew Hill.

COAST GUARD OFFICERS HELD SECOND REUNION
Capt. F. C. Billard Tended Reception at Fort Trumbull.

Officers of the Coast Guard service to the number of 40 held the second annual reunion in New London with a banquet at the Mohican hotel Monday evening, at which Capt. F. C. Billard, commandant of the Coast Guard academy at Fort Trumbull, presided.

On account of the delay in the arrival of the cutter Mohawk, which had an passenger's assistant, the service of the Treasury by Dr. Newton, Capt. E. P. Berthoff, commandant of the Coast Guard service, and Capt. C. A. McAllister, chief engineer of the cutter, the banquet was postponed until 8.45. The occasion was pleasantly informal, no speeches being made. Selections were rendered throughout the evening by an orchestra.

Tuesday Captain Billard tendered a reception to the visiting officers and their ladies at Fort Trumbull and the reunion will be concluded Tuesday evening with a dance in the drill hall.

MISS EDITH LUCAS ENTERTAINED M. S. C. CLUB
Covers Were Laid for Twelve and a Dainty Luncheon Menu Was Served

At their last meeting the members of the M. S. C. club were entertained by Miss Edith Lucas at her home in Foguenuck Cove for twelve and a dainty luncheon menu was served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Lillian Lucas.

A business meeting preceded the luncheon. During the social hour there were vocal selections by Mrs. Frank Johnson of Cuba who is visiting Mrs. Lillian Lucas.

CHANCE AT PLATTSBURG
Third Scholarship Offered for High School Students Who Can Meet Requirements.

A third Plattsburg scholarship, for which students at the Hartford high school alone may compete, has been announced by the Hartford branch of the National Security league. A second scholarship, made possible by the generosity of a Trinity graduate, who prefers to have his name withheld, was offered recently, for high school students to physical condition.

The scholarships will be awarded soon after the competition closes on June 5, by a committee of three men to be chosen from the points at large. Any boy in the class of 1916 who is eligible for the junior camp may compete, provided he has his parent's consent. The successful competitor will receive $55, a sum sufficient to pay his expenses at the junior camp at Plattsburg from July 1 to Aug. 8, with uniform and railroad fare.

The award of any of the scholarships will depend upon a boy's qualifications to physical condition, mental ability and general character, activities for the benefit of his school, and the merits of a paper of not more than 500 words on Why Plattsburg Appeals to Me.

A report by the physical director of the school or the Y. M. C. A. (otherwise) to physical condition, will be presented, with a recommendation from the principal of the mental ability and general character of the applicant.

FRANK H. MERRILL
Now Executive Secretary in New York in Raising Episcopal Pension Fund.

Frank H. Merrill, a popular general secretary of the Norwich Y. M. C. A., about ten years ago is now executive secretary for the committee of the church pension fund of the Episcopal church for the diocese of New York outside of the city of New York.

This committee is to assist Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts in his nation-wide campaign to raise $5,000,000 by March 1, 1917, as the first sum to insure the financial stability and successful operation of the pension system for the church. Over half of this sum has already been raised.

DR. J. V. WAYTE'S JEWELRY

TAKEN BY WATERBURY LAWYER
Gay Film-Flammer's Case Recalled—Doctor and A. W. Harrington Now Serving Sentences.

Attorneys in Waterbury have taken the jewelry that J. V. Wayte, alias Dr. Paul Parent, had when he was arrested here over a month ago, in company with a woman whom A. W. Harrington of Norwich claimed was his common-law wife, Mrs. Mary Harrington, was sentenced in the last term of the superior court on the charge of defrauding a New London hotel.

The Waterbury American says: The handsome gold watch and chain, expensive diamond ring, gold clipper, manicure set and other articles seized from Dr. Wayte, alias Dr. Paul Parent, at the time he was arrested for passing phony checks in this city, were removed from the clerk's office in the superior court today, after Attorney Edward P. Sweeney had filed a bond of $300 with the clerk of the court. The three interested attorneys, Mr. Sweeney, Walter E. Monahan and John H. Cassidy, signed the order, and Messrs. Monahan and Cassidy went surety for Mr. Sweeney.

You see when "Dr." Parent and Jennie Harrington, alias Jennie Parent, were arrested here last winter the costly jewelry was found on the male prisoner and taken from him. They were held until after the case had reached the criminal branch of the superior court, and until after Parent had been sentenced to state prison for a term of eight years, and the young woman sent to the state house for a term of one year.

Then a scramble was made for the articles in possession of the court, claims for them being filed by the common-law wife, A. W. Harrington, and also the woman prisoner. In addition there were several claimants from Norwich, represented by Attorney Cassidy.

Clerk Marsh couldn't dispose of the seized articles when there was a constant hand, and thereupon he held them over. A short time ago the lawyers interested in the matter reached an agreement and decided to have the goods removed from the court house, filing the necessary bond to protect Mr. Marsh from any further claims that might be entered.

That which is to be done with the watch and chain, and the diamond ring is not known, but the lawyers will probably reach some sort of an agreement as to their disposition. "Dr." Parent doesn't want them now, and has so informed his attorney. The same is true of the woman in the case, and also of Harrington, the much interested individual who got himself in trouble for telling everybody of his deep interest and concern in the affairs of the female prisoner.

"Dr." Parent is now in the state prison. His wife intends to move to Hartford and be near the prison.

SUPERB BOOK PRESENTED
Free Academy Corporation's Gift, "Forest, Lake and River," By Dr. Frank Mackie Johnson, 76, of Boston.

A Norwich man who is a proprietor of the Free Academy and a member of the class of '74, has presented the Peck Library, Peck, Johnson & Johnson's "Forest, Lake and River," a book that will interest all lovers of the rod and line.

The volumes are a de luxe edition, printed on hand made, deckle-edged paper, bound in calf oze. As a bit of book binding they are worth looking at.

Among the contributors is Archibald Mitchell, of Norwich, who writes on salmon fishing. Dr. Johnson is a brother of the late John M. Johnson of Norwich, and was graduated from the Free Academy with the class of '76.

The volumes are beautifully illustrated, and accompanying them is a portfolio of large colored lithographs of salmon, trout, bass and other fish reproduced from the paintings of the artist, A. D. Turner.

Children Held Parade at Thameville. Thameville had a Memorial day parade all its own. While there were no veterans in line, and uniforms were lacking, yet the young people, who took part in a splendid parade, gave appearance when they marched through the streets in that section and halts in front of the schoolhouse, where they were met by those who took part in the parade were Russell Rathbun, cornetist and leader, Lucille May and George Guile, Clifford and Robert Johnson, and Raymond Houghton, Gordon Grant, Donald Rathbun, and Ralph Parker.

TAFTVILLE
Successful Entertainment and Dance at Parish Hall—Motorcycle Trip—Personals and Notes.

At Parish hall Monday evening an entertainment, minstrel and dance were given by the Choral club of Taftville under the direction of Joseph P. Gaudreau. There was a large attendance, the house being filled to its capacity. Many attended from out of town. The entertainment was a sketch entitled "Bill's Last Night Single," in the following is the plot and cast of characters:

Setting of the stage at the curtain rises is a Messrs. summer home. On the balcony are the members of the Bachelors' club playing cards and amusing themselves while waiting for the president of the club to greet him on his last night single. Bill arrives with Jack, a friend. Bill tells his friends that he is a wed next day and treats them for the last time. On that night a farewell party is given. All the boys are together ready for a real good time, and the colored waiters are given the right to celebrate Bill's last night single.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS
Must Handle All Matter, Except Parcel Post, When Presented to Them.

A new order for the post office department at Washington is to the effect that railway mail clerks must handle all mail matter, except that of the fourth class, by which is meant bulky mail, such as boxes, suitcases, etc., which matter at the trains, except when working, perhaps, on closed mail trains.

The order likewise specifies that they must also receive soldiers' and sailors' letters unpaid but duly certified, pension letters and penalty letters when presented by the person entitled to the frank.

Bridgeport.—Laundry dealers in Bridgeport are now charging three cents, instead of two cents and one-half for washing and ironing linen collars.
